

Sprints

Sprint's Goals

Sprints is a platform that provides practical hands-on experience for fresh graduates, and it is marketed as MENA (Middle East and North Africa)'s first of its kind in the region in guaranteed hiring programs.

The team behind sprints

This project has been backed by a lot of investors and partners as a way for third party training which is beneficial from a hiring standpoint so that upon joining a company, you'll have the experience to be able to provide to the partner to its fullest. The time frame for this project is to be up and running in 3 to 6 months working in an agile manner in an all-out development

Project Management and Distribution

All hands on deck. Everyone is going to be fully set to develop this project after document analysis
